JURY BLAMES MINE OFFICIAL FOR OUTBREAK

Concludes Investigation by Charging C. K. McDowell, Slain Superintendent, With Murder

16 UNKNOWN DEAD

No Further Information Concerning Identity of Those Killed by "Persons Unknown"

(By the Associated Press.)
Herrin, Ill., June 25.—C. K. McDowell, slain one-legged superintendent of the Southern Illinois coal company's strip mine, half way between Jerrin and Marion, Ill., was the only man charged with murder by the coroner's jury, which concluded its investigations tonight.

The non-union men, the coroner's jury decided, came to their death "by gunshot wounds at the hands of parties to this 'jury unknown,' as the result of an act on the part of officials of the wrecked Lester mine.

The remaining verdicts—20 in all—stated that each individual "came to his death by gunshot wounds at the hands of persons unknown."

No additional information concerning the identity of the 16 unknown dead was unearthed during the course of the inquiry, which took the jury to the local hospital and into the rooms of wounded non-union men.

At Findley, wounded timekeeper for the Southern Illinois coal company, new in the Herrin hospital, gave the jury the information on which it based the verdict of murder returned against McDowell, the dead superintendent.

"McDowell and I," Findley declared, "were standing on the edge of the pit when he asked me, as he pointed to a dark object in the near-by woods, 'Is that a man?'"

"No," I replied," Findley continued, "but he fired, and the man threw his hands into the air and fell."

Colonel Hunter, in a statement to two representatives of the Associated Press tonight, reiterated his declaration that on Sunday last, in a telephone conversation with the general of Illinois, he stated definitely that he did not believe that the local authorities were either able or inclined to handle the situation here and that he recommended troops to be sent to Herrin.

The coroner's jury, according to the coroner, "Bill" McGowan, and the foreman of the coroner's jury, Joe Binkinger, represents the "united sentiment of Williamson county on the massacre of Thursday and the events leading up to it."

CONFERENCE ON COAL STRIKE EXPECTED SOON

Washington, June 25.—A conference with President Harding on the national coal strike was understood to be the purpose of the visit here today of John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America. Mr. Lewis refused to discuss his trip to Washington but the impression gained that he had come in response to a request from Secretary Davis of the labor department.

Neither President Harding nor Secretary Davis was in town when the miners' leader arrived and so far as could be learned, no arrangements were made today for Mr. Lewis to go to the White House. Mr. Harding was not to return from his week-end visit to the country until tomorrow morning.

McLean, Washington publisher, at Leesburg, Va., until tomorrow morning.

Although Mr. Lewis would not discuss his expected meeting with the President, in circles generally conversant with the coal strike situation, it was believed that the conference might be the prelude to a general meeting between the miners' leaders and operators, under White House auspices.

Officials of the miners' union and some operators are understood to believe the time is ripe for some attempt at a rapprochement. On the other hand, the sentiment in the operators' organizations is said to be against any attempt at settlement except through district and local agreements.

The miners, it was declared today, would welcome now—as they assert they would have from the first—a general conference with the operators and would participate in one if called by the President. They have not received it was said, from the program adopted at their convention last February, and are ready to present it at such a conference.

MARCONI WILL GIVE RADIO TALK FROM WGY TONIGHT

Albany, June 25.—Guglielmo Marconi, Italian radio expert, arrived here tonight in his seagoing yacht, "Elettra," after a trip up the Hudson from New York. Senator Marconi will go on to Schenectady tomorrow morning where he will inspect the plant of the General Electric company and, tomorrow evening, broadcast a talk on radio from the General Electric station (WGY).

During the entire course of the trip, Senator Marconi was in radio communication with the General Electric station.

16 MISSING IN SCHOONER WRECK

Captain Not Optimistic Over Fate of Seamen Shipwrecked in Rough Water

Halifax, N. S., June 25.—Captain Jeffrey Thomas, who with seven members of his crew reached Sable Island safely after the Gloucester fishing schooner Puritan had been wrecked on the northwest bar of the island early yesterday, sent word here by radio tonight that he was not optimistic as to the fate of the 16 missing seamen. He said the fog was dense and the sea rough when the vessel struck the bar.

She began to sink immediately. The dories were launched with all possible haste and all hands clambered into them and made haste to get clear of the heavy surf breaking over the bar. Captain Thomas saw one dory capsized soon after it left the side of the schooner, but was unable to determine whether its occupants were rescued. The fog shut in thicker than ever and he saw nothing more of the other boats.

The United States coast guard cutter Tampa, which left here last night, arrived off Sable Island early today and spent the day in vain search for the missing men.

The Puritan was a new vessel, built with a view to participating in the international fisherman's race next fall.

Gloucester, Mass., June 25.—The Gloucester schooner Puritan, wrecked off Sable Island, sailed from this port last Saturday on a trip for halibut. She put into Boothbay Harbor, Me., for bait and then left for the banks. She was in command of Captain Jeffrey Thomas.

CARPENTERS MAKING BUSINESS IN RUSSIA IS APPROVED

New York, June 25.—A cable message from A. I. Rikoff, acting for Lenine as chairman of the Soviet council of labor and defense, approving plans of the Russian-American industrial corporation to operate garment manufacturing establishments in Russia, was made public today by Sidney Hillman, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America. Hillman is head of the new organization here.

The Soviet council of labor and defense has charge of the economic reconstruction in Russia.

DEMPSEY-WILLS CONTEST MAY BE ARRANGED TODAY

New York, June 25.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight boxing champion, arrived here today from his home in Los Angeles.

Coincidentally with Dempsey's arrival, it was announced that negotiations for a match with Georges Wills, New Orleans negro challenger, to be staged by Promoter Tex Rickard, were nearing a climax. Articles for the contest, it was said, are being drawn up and may be signed tomorrow. Managers of both Dempsey and Wills expressed a readiness to sign but details were not divulged.

tomorrow to consider the miners' next step in the situation created by the break with the operators in negotiations for a new agreement.

The scale committee comprises 40 men, including international officers of the mine workers and the district executives.

Conferences between the miners and operators broke off in New York on June 14, when the operators announced that they stood by their demands before a reduction in wages or the submission of the matters of differences to a board of arbitration to be named by President Harding.

The miners, represented by a sub-committee consisting of the three district presidents and the international president and vice president, declined to consider wage cuts or arbitration.

At a meeting in Hazleton earlier in the month, the scale committee called for a referendum vote of the 150,000 anthracite workers for authority to turn the present suspension into a strike. Counting the votes will take place at this week's meeting, and tabulation of the returns will be made by the secretaries of the three anthracite districts.

THEATRE MAN'S WIFE ACCUSED

Charged With Having Shot Oscar A. Hirsh in Quarrel; Victim in Critical Condition

Long Island Town Scene of Two Shootings Over Week-End, Neither Definitely Explained

Freeport, June 25.—Oscar A. Hirsh, wealthy former theatrical producer of New York, is in a critical condition at the Nassau county hospital and his young wife, Hazel, is under arrest charged with having shot him following a quarrel early today at the close of a lawn party given by Miss Rene Davies, an actress.

The shooting occurred in front of the home of Miss Davies, who is a sister of Marion Davies, moving picture star. Rene Davies is the former wife of George Lederer, theatre manager.

The cause of the quarrel which led up to the shooting is not known. Hirsh, who was shot through the cheek, the bullet ranging downward and apparently lodging near his heart, said the shooting had followed threats of violence by Mrs. Hirsh, according to Bernard J. Douras, a New York city magistrate and father of the Misses Davies.

Magistrate Douras, who ran to Hirsh's side immediately after the shooting, told Assistant District Attorney Edwards the wounded man had gasped:

"She did it. She shot me. She said she would get me, and now she did it."

A charge of assault with intent to kill was lodged against her. After spending the day in the county jail in Mineola, Mrs. Hirsh was released on $25,000 bail.

School Teacher Shot Dead.
Freeport, June 25.—Counsel for William Cressy of Covington, Ky., who is in Mineola jail charged with the murder of Miss Edith Lavoy, school teacher, stated today that he was prepared to prove conclusively that the young woman had taken her own life.

The lawyer said that Cressy had received several letters from Miss Lavoy before he left his home in Kentucky to come here and intimated that some of these missives would bear out the contention that she committed suicide.

"This man Cressy," he said, "came up from his home in Kentucky purposely to break off with Miss Lavoy and to return to her all the trinkets and other things she had given him."

The names of several women in a book found on Cressy when he was arrested Friday night and which the attorney said had been seized upon as an excuse for branding him as a "mail vamp," were chiefly those of close relatives, he declared. Others were names of women war workers he had met when he was in the navy, he said.

Miss Lavoy was found dead at her boarding house Friday night with a bullet wound in her left temple. She had been talking with Cressy in the sitting room some time before the shooting. He told the police that he fell asleep while in the room and was awakened by the shot.

11,000 E. J. WORKERS TO GET WEEK'S VACATION

Binchampton, June 25.—Announcement is made by George F. Johnson, president of the Endicott-Johnson shoe manufacturing corporation, that 11,000 of the employees of the concern will be given a vacation of one week with full pay during the present year. This includes every worker in the employ of the corporation who has been on the payroll since last year's vacation period, had been withdrawn during general business depression.

In an open letter to employees announcing the vacation decision, Mr. Johnson said:

"We thoroughly believe in the vacation periods and we shall be as anxious to grant them as you will be to receive them."

Buffalo, June 25.—It was announced here today that the state conservation commission had withdrawn protection on robins and would issue permits to shoot the birds. The permits are to be issued only to commercial fruit growers who must submit proof of damage and specify the periods during which such protection is necessary for the fruit crop.

Cable reports of the London conference today told the details of the arrangements, whereby the relief administration will provide foodstuffs to the amount of $250,000 and the joint distribution committee will advance a like amount in money.

BERLIN AGAIN IN A TURMOIL

Big Demonstration in Favor of Republic Follows Assassination of Rathenau

GOV'T AROUSED

Wirth Warns of Menace Threatening His Regime; Dr. Weidfeldt May Be Foreign Minister

(By the Associated Press.)
Berlin, June 25.—A demonstration in favor of the republic in the Lustgarten today was attended by 200,000 persons. It was quite orderly.

The chairman of the majority socialist and independent socialist parties, and a number of trade unionists, sent a message to Chancellor Wirth, according to a Caesal dispatch, demanding dissolution of the Reichstag and new elections with the following program: First, a democratic republic; second, transformation of the Reichswehr and police into trustworthy republican forces; third, dissolution of all reactionary organizations.

Intervening in today's debate in the Reichstag on the government's measures for the safety of the state and state officials, the chancellor delivered the following bulletin:

"Absolutely no hope. Fatal case, sinking rapidly."

Doubt was expressed by those at the Small home whether Mrs. Small would survive the night.

Kankakee, Ill., June 25.—Mrs. Len Small, wife of Governor Small, is suffering from a stroke of apoplexy. Doctors to attend her have been summoned from Chicago. Mrs. Small was stricken after her return home from Waukegan, where yesterday, after a long trial, her husband was acquitted of charge of embezzling state funds.

Little hope is entertained for Mrs. Small's recovery. The attack came upon her shortly before midnight in the midst of congratulations from her friends and neighbors, who had gathered to welcome Governor and Mrs. Small and their family home from Waukegan.

Mrs. Small had not regained consciousness at a late hour today and at 4 o'clock doctors issued the following bulletin:

"At this hour we find the patient in a deep coma. While the patient is practically in a dying condition, by means of stimulation heart and respiration are still functioning."

Mrs. Small was in an unusually happy frame of mind last night and seemed particularly glad to be home from Waukegan, where she had been with Governor Small during the closing days of his trial. The governor's party arrived home shortly after 10 o'clock, having been met six miles east of Kankakee by a large delegation of friends and neighbors in automobiles.

While Governor and Mrs. Small were standing at the door of their home receiving the congratulations of friends, Mrs. Small complained of not feeling well and started in the house, where she collapsed.

Jubilant Scene in Waukegan.

Waukegan, Ill., June 25.—Governor Len Small was acquitted Saturday of the charge that he conspired, while state treasurer, to misuse state funds. The jury retired at 2:03 p. m. and returned its verdict at 3:30 o'clock.

We would have been in sooner, but we wanted to stay out long enough to make it look right," one juror said.

Shouts of jubilation burst from the crowd in the courtroom and many fought their way forward to shake the Governor's hand. He and his entire family had sat at the defense table through the closing hours of the trial and while the jury was out.

Balloons whanged their gongs and shouted for order. One response was the flashing of a dozen photographers' lights. The crowd continued to yell, round after round of cheering that shook the rafters of the ancient Lake County courthouse.

While balliffs held back an advancing wave of friends, the Governor and his wife, their son, Leslie, and the Governor's sister, Miss Sue Small, passed along the jury box, shaking hands with each of the twelve men. The Governor himself showed excitement in his face and emotion in his voice when he tried to talk.

"It's George," he said, "I can't think what to say. There's nothing I can say to express myself now."

RELIGIOUS SERVICES FEATURE

Chautauque, June 25.—Religious services at which Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell of St. Paul, Minn., preached the sermon, featured today's session of the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

A musical program and an exhibition of a collection of costumes from the Holy Land made up the rest of the day's program.

corner close to his home and had reduced its speed when the car containing the assassins was encountered. Both the occupants are said to have opened fire upon the foreign minister, who fell to the floor of his car, fatally wounded, expiring shortly afterward.

Police Trail Assassins.
Large forces of police were quickly on the scene and a firing squad was dispatched to the death of the assassins were believed to have taken place.

Dr. Rathenau was regarded as probably the ablest man in the Wirth cabinet with a decisive influence in shaping the government's policy with respect to reparations and other questions, and also as the minister most disliked among the nationalists, who objected to his policies and also held his Jewish extraction against him.

This latter circumstance especially has made him the target of humiliating attacks in anti-Semitic circles and he recently was referred to in several terms in a ribald song sung at the reunion of the nationalist regiment.

Dr. Rathenau was a guest at dinner last night of Alanson B. Houghton, the American ambassador. On receiving news of the assassination of the foreign minister, this morning the American embassy promptly hoisted its flag to half mast.

Governor's Wife Stricken With Apoplexy While Celebrating His Acquittal of Conspiracy Charge

'Absolutely No Hope; Fatal Case,' Says Bulletin Issued by Attending Physicians

Kankakee, Ill., June 25.—At 10 o'clock tonight, Dr. E. G. Wilson and Dr. W. A. Stokes, attending Mrs. Len Small, wife of Governor Small, issued the following bulletin:

"Absolutely no hope. Fatal case, sinking rapidly."

Doubt was expressed by those at the Small home whether Mrs. Small would survive the night.

Kankakee, Ill., June 25.—Mrs. Len Small, wife of Governor Small, is suffering from a stroke of apoplexy. Doctors to attend her have been summoned from Chicago. speech, the keynote of which was that the chief menace threatening the republic emanated from the rightists. He announced that he himself had today received a threatening letter.

The German ambassador at Washington, Dr. Otto Weidfeldt, is mentioned as the possible successor of Rathenau as foreign minister.

It is reported that the government has conferred with the party leaders to discuss the possibility of expelling active monarchists.

Wirth Denounces Agitation.
In his speech today, Chancellor Wirth severely denounced the agitators and vituperations of pan-Germans, which had created an atmosphere of murder in Germany.

At Saturday evening's session of the Reichstag, Chancellor Wirth, reading the call to the country from the imperial government, said the government's recommendation to the president of the Reichstag was that steps would be taken to insure the safety of the state and the lives of its representatives. The government, he added, expected the German people to back it up.

A presidential decree issued today declared that all meetings, processions or proclamations will be forbidden which may be contrary to law or incite to the destruction of the Republic against present or past members of the Republican government, or to rouse the country to approve such acts as may bring into contempt Republican institutions in such a way as to disturb the internal peace of the country. Unions and associations making such efforts may be banned or dissolved.

Dr. Rathenau's Assassination.
The assassination of Dr. Rathenau on Saturday followed hard upon a vitriolic attack on the foreign minister by Dr. Karl Helfferich in the Reichstag Friday, when the nationalist leader grilled the government generally and Dr. Rathenau in particular concerning the cabinet's reparations policy and its attitude towards the populations of the Rhineland and the Saar valley.

News of the assassination reached the reichstag at 11 o'clock, just when the commission on taxation had convened. Chancellor Wirth announced the assassination, upon which pandemonium broke out among the various party groups of the deputies.

The Socialists jumped up shouting to Dr. Helfferich:

"You are the assassin!"

They threatened to pounce upon him, and Dr. Helfferich hastily left the committee room.

In one of the reichstag lounges a heated outbreak of recrimination occurred between a group of deputies belonging to the Left and a party of representatives of the other extreme in the chamber.

When the news was communicated to the reichstag itself at 11:25 o'clock it was received with deep emotion. Then, amidst a turmoil, the reichstag adjourned.

Among the members of the government the word that Dr. Rathenau had been assassinated came as a stunning blow. Several of the ministers who had been awaiting the foreign minister's arrival for the cabinet meeting burst into tears and the meeting was abandoned.

There were two persons in the automobile from which the shots that killed Dr. Rathenau were fired. It appears that his car was nearing the

Better Field of Varsity Eights Never Faced a Starter in Long History of Rowing

(By the Associated Press.)
Poughkeepsie, June 25.—The intercollegiate rowing championship of America will be decided on the Hudson river course here tomorrow afternoon. Six of the fastest crews of the country are tonight resting on their oars for the titular battle without a word of rest. No better field of varsity eights ever faced a starter in the long history of the intercollegiate rowing association and no entries ever puzzled rowing experts more.

The United States Naval academy's wonder crew, Olympic champions of America in 1920, and winners here last year, held the popular fancy tonight. Shrewd students of oarsmanship predict that Cornell will force the Middles to a terrible battle before the Ithaca combination, said to be the best in recent years, will admit defeat. The University of Washington's shell, champions of the Pacific coast, is admitted to be a formidable contender with the powerful Northwestern type of sweep-oarsmen. Syracuse, composed of giant oarsmen, is the mystery and dark horse combination of which anything may be expected. Columbia's varsity eight, the favorite of Yale and White it rough water prowls, and Pennsylvania hopes to slip through a victor while the other crews are killing each other off.

The oldest veteran at Poughkeepsie regatta cannot recall a similar situation of uncertainty, which is exemplified by the fact that the prize money has been wadded upon the result of the three-mile varsity event. Rush predictions of victory are entirely absent and even the opinions of the real rowing experts are so qualified by ifs, ands, winds, water and other exceptions as to be virtually useless.

SILVER BAY DEDICATES HELEN HUGHES MEMORIAL

Plattsburgh, June 25.—Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes and Mrs. Hughes attended the dedication today of the Helen Hughes memorial chapel, on the Silver Bay conference grounds, Lake George, erected in memory of their daughter, who before her death was prominent in Silver Bay conference work.

A choir of 45 girls, from Vassar college, Miss Hughes' alma mater, gave a musical program. Three of the stained glass windows of the chapel were gifts of the Welsh people of the United States and the altar hangings were given by the Calvary Baptist church of Washington. The exercises were conducted by Mrs. Harry Fosdick of New York.

STRICKEN BLIND WHILE SWIMMING GIRL IS SAVED

New York, June 25.—Stricken blind while swimming at Coney Island, Miss Lillian McGowan, 21, a Brooklyn bookkeeper, was saved from drowning today by her brother, Robert. The girl became panic-stricken when her sight left her and she sank, screaming for her brother.

The girl's sight was partially restored tonight. Doctors who attended her could not name the cause of her sudden blindness.

SIX BUILDINGS BLOWN UP

Southampton, Mass., June 25.—Six small buildings of the plant of the American Powder company were blown up today when one of them was struck by lightning during a severe thunder storm. One building contained a magazine and others powder in various processes of manufacture. No one was hurt, as there were no employees near the buildings at the time.

A SPECTACULAR SUICIDE.

New York, June 25.—A man believed to be Henry Montgomery of Brooklyn jumped to his death from a Brooklyn bridge this evening, in the view of hundreds of pedestrians and surface car and elevated train passengers. He leaped from a passing surface car to the bridge roadway, stepped through the rail without looking back, and jumped.

N. Y. C. Train Hits Auto Near Batavia, Four Dead

Batavia, June 25.—Three persons were killed and a fourth fatally injured when westbound train No. 3 on the New York Central railroad struck an automobile on the crossing at Corfu, 11 miles west of Batavia, at 6:30 o'clock this evening.

The dead are George E. Perrin, his wife, Mary A. Perrin, and her mother, Mrs. Anna Perrin, all of Batavia. A son of Mr. and Mrs. Perrin, George H. Perrin, was so badly injured that he later died.

Mr. Perrin was vice president of the Bank of Batavia, a member of the Board of Education, the Rotary club, and other local organizations. He was for several years cashier of the Bank of Genesee of his city, and was postmaster under the administration of President Taft.

Train 3 left Rochester at 5:30 o'clock and stopped at Batavia at 6:18. At the time of the accident, the four persons in the car were enjoying a picnic.

LIQUOR-LADEN BOATS SEIZED IN EAST RIVER

20,000 Bottles of Whiskey Found on Three Launches by Customs Men

13 MEN ARRESTED

Rum Runners Use Furious Squall as Shield, But Lightning Flash Proves Their Undoing

New York, June 25.—Twenty thousand bottles of whiskey were seized by customs officers who captured three speeding motor boats which attempted to run their rum cargoes up the East river before dawn today under cover of a furious squall that threatened their destruction with every gust of wind. Thirteen men aboard the little craft were arrested.

The vessels are fishermen, and came here from Boston, the "Commodore" of the fleet admitting, federal officials said, that they had taken aboard their liquor cargoes from a 75-foot rum runner which was at anchor several miles off Sandy Hook. The boats are the sloops Peter Metzger and Stella, and the gasoline boat C-925.

Deputy Port Surveyor William Sanders and the crew aboard a department launch "spotted" the fleet in the vivid glare of a lightning flash in the Narrows. The federal officers trailed them at a distance, hidden by the fury of the storm. When the fishing craft failed to put in at the Fulton street fish market wharf, the officers' suspicions were aroused. Full speed ahead was rung and their launch overtook the flotilla.

Three of the officers boarded the "flagship," the C-925, and questioned Alfred Anderson of Boston, who, they say, admitted he was in command of the fleet. Unsatisfied with his answers the officers went into the hold and claim to have found it filled with whiskey. Inspection of the other two vessels revealed similar cargoes, they alleged, declaring they found 20,000 bottles of the contraband in all.

When the vessels had been moored safely alongside the United States barge office, it was declared that the Metzger had sprung a leak while buffeted by the storm and was sinking rapidly.

FARMER-LABOR, SOCIALIST CONVENTION IS CALLED

New York, June 25.—A joint committee representing the Socialist and Farmer-Labor parties tonight issued a call for a state convention here July 15 to nominate state and congressional tickets for the fall elections. The announcement marks the first instance of co-operation between the two groups in this state.

The convention, the formal announcement said, would name candidates for all congressional, state, legislative and judicial offices vacant this year and adopt a labor platform, which both parties are pledged to support.

The convention call was signed by Morris Hillquit and Algernon Lee for the Socialist party, and Ben Howe and Maurice Williams for the Farmer-Labor party.

KILLED WHEN CAR PLUNGES FROM A WEAKENED BRIDGE

Elmira, June 25.—Edwin Bennett of Bath was instantly killed when his car plunged from a weakened bridge down an embankment in the town of Wheeler early Sunday morning. Members of his family with him escaped with only minor injuries. Bennett's neck was broken.

Floods of last week had made the bridge unsafe and it had been placed across the approach. The driver of the car failed to observe the pole until on the bridge and then in trying to stop quickly the big machine skidded and went over the bank. EMMETT M. IRONS DEAD

Life-Long Resident of Hartwick and Civil War Veteran Succumbs to Infirmities of Age.

Hartwick, June 25.—Emmett Melvin Irons, a life-long resident of Hartwick and one of the few remaining Civil War veterans hereabouts, died Saturday evening at 6.30 o'clock at his home in this village. For number of years he had been in failing health, due to the infirmities of age, but his last illness was of four weeks' duration.

Mr. Irons was born in Hartwick on August 9, 1841, a son of Asa and Abigail (Roberts) Irons. He grew into young manhood, the call of his country came and he responded, enlisting on August 23, 1862, and serving to the close of the war, receiving his discharge on June 25, 1865. He participated in practically all the big battles of the war, including Bull Run, Gettysburg, Antietam, and the Wilderness. He was twice wounded—the first time at the battle of Bull Run and the second at Antietam. Neither wound proved serious.

After the men had laid down their arms, Mr. Irons returned to his home town and on January 2, 1866, married his childhood sweetheart, Ella Dingman. All the married life was spent in Hartwick, his wife passing away 19 years ago. Mr. Irons lived alone until about five years ago, when on account of declining years, his son, M. Elvin Irons, came to live with him and cared for him until the time of his death. He was one of the oldest members of the Christian church, located on Christian Hill, and was active in its work. About 15 years ago, he compiled a record of membership, from the time of the church's organization, and this still hangs in the church, a testimonial to his interest in Christian church. Mr. Irons also did considerable writing, and for a number of years was correspondent for county papers. He was by trade a carpenter and mason and for a number of years conducted a shop on West Main street, until forced to give up five years ago on account of failing health. He was a respected man and friends of the family will learn with great regret of his death.

Mr. Irons was a member of Duroc (Hartwick) post, G. A. R., until it disbanded, and then transferred his membership to the L. C. Turner post at Cooperstown. Mr. Irons had six children, three of whom survive—Asa H. Irons of Canastota, E. Elvin Irons of Hartwick, and M. Elvin Irons of Hartwick. He also leaves 13 grandchildren, one brother, Elliott, and one sister, Mrs. Sarah Sprague, both of Hartwick.

Funeral services will be held at Christian church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. J. A. Dillon officiating. Prayers at the house at 12:30. Burial in Fly Creek cemetery.

FUNERALS.

Charles E. Norton.

The funeral of Charles E. Norton was held yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, from his late home, 22 Cherry street, and was attended by a large number of friends, gathered to pay their last respects to one whom in life they had liked and respected. Rev. E. J. Farley of the First Baptist church officiated, his remarks being full of sympathy and consolation for the bereaved family. Two selections, "Abide With Me" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" were rendered by Frank Wells and Mrs. Darling. The P. H. C. and the B. R. C. of A. attended in a body. There were many floral tributes, including pieces from the B. R. C. of A., Macabees, Morning Herald of Gloversville, and the neighbors. Interment was at the Plains cemetery, the bearers being William Auchtenpaugh, William Gleason, James Roylan, T. Lorrell, Charles Couse and Frank Ross, all former associates and members of his brotherhood.

Those who attended the funeral from outside the city were Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Norton and son, Gloversville; Mrs. F. W. Loomis, Elizabeth, N. J.; Edson Warner, Brooklyn; Frank Hathaway, Binghamton; Mrs. Mary Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Almon Moore, Mr. and Mrs. C. Boughton, and Mr. and Mrs. George Ekersson, Cobleskill; and William Edelman, Schenectady.

MARRIAGE IN STAMFORD.

Many Friends Present Thursday at Greene-Hoagland Wedding.

Stamford, June 25. — Thursday, at high noon, occurred the marriage of Miss Millicent H. Hoagland, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hoagland of Stamford, to Joseph Irving Greene, son of Mrs. Earth Greene of Beacon. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. M. Coddington of the Methodist church of Stamford, the bride's pastor. A pretty feature of the ceremony was the bearing of the bride's bouquet and the ring by two nieces of the bride, Norma Hoagland, aged 2½ years, and Virginia Hoagland, aged 3 years. Miss Margaret Coddington played the Lohengrin wedding march for the entry of the bridal party.

Immediately after the ceremony the entire wedding party betook themselves to Churchill hall, where a fine wedding breakfast was served. Mr. Dugan of Beacon gave a short speech of welcome for the friends in Beacon. A happy response was made for the bride by Mrs. Eleanor Warren of Stamford. The couple left on the afternoon train. A brief wedding journey in New Jersey will precede their return to Stamford about July 4.

A beautiful display of wedding gifts of cut glass, silver, china and numerous checks attested the esteem in which the bride is held.

Miss Greene is a talented young woman, having had the natural gift of a fine soprano voice, with the added advantage of a course at the University of Syracuse. Mr. Greene is a graduate of Brown university and saw service in France for nearly two years. The congratulations of all their friends are extended to them.

INDEMNITY FUNDS ASSURED.

New York state has been allotted $20,000 of the emergency fund of $300,000 made available by congress to continue tuberculosis eradication work until July 1. During the next fiscal year, beginning July 1, the federal government has made almost $2,000,000 available to pay indemnities. Of this New York state will receive $260,000.

New York is the biggest dairy cattle state in the union. Its herds are valued at about $200,000,000, and its dairy products at $150,000,000 annually. It is good economy to protect this wonderful income-producing industry to the fullest extent possible and dairy farmers generally are pleased with the present status of eradication work.

After July 1 it will be continued in full force with several new methods under way that will make it more successful than ever. Officials plan to allot the $260,000 to counties according to their needs, so they can plan better to make the money last. The work will be co-ordinated and state indemnity funds will be used first to make federal money last longer. It looks like a good year for accredited herd work.

Thanks must be given to the New York State Conference Board of Agricultural Organizations, the New York State Farm Bureau federation, the New York Holstein Friesian and other associations for the tireless efforts of their officials in securing these results. It means, actually, millions of dollars saved, not only to dairy farmers, but to the entire state.

The above is of particular interest in Otsego county, where the Accredited Herd Association is pushing the work and where nine veterinarians are now employed in the work of testing.

THE FILLED MILK BILL.

The outlook for the passage of the Voight bill, which prohibits filled milk in interstate commerce, in the future of which Congressman Clarke of this district is deeply interested, is now believed to be excellent. The bill, as previously announced, has passed the house, and the senate will soon begin its consideration. Its passage will mean millions of dollars every year to the dairying interests of the country.

If the bill becomes a law, it will mark the end of one of the most strenuous fights ever put up by farmers to protect their interests. The Farm Bureau and practically every other farm organization has supported the bill through thick and thin. They have been aided in their struggle by consumer organizations, for milk from which butterfat has been removed and vegetable oils substituted is recognized as a menace to health.

New York state passed a law at the last session of the legislature prohibiting manufacture and sale of the imitation and bogus product. Particular interest in the national measure is felt by the farmers of Otsego and Delaware, who believe that there are many other matters on which the senate is spending time which might profitably have discussion abridged if thereby they could get action on a measure which concerns so great a class of the population of the entire country.

MORE THAN PIE CHASER

Variety of Uses for More Than 500 Kinds of Cheese Saves Important Food From Being Accessory.

Ithaca, June 25. — Good cheese is not merely a pie chaser, although it is commonly used for that purpose, say the dairy specialists of the State Agricultural college here in a statement given out today. More than 500 varieties of cheese are now manufactured, the college says, and although each variety has its own particular use, all are healthful foods because they preserve the nutritious elements found in fresh milk.

Cheddar cheese is the sort most commonly manufactured and used in the United States. Many a good Welsh rarebit has been made stringy, according to the specialists, by using cheddar cheese that wasn't old enough. They recommend any old, well-ripened cheese to make a good rarebit.

About "Fancy" Cheeses.

Many so-called fancy cheeses sold under various trade names are made by grinding up common cheddar cheese and adding flavoring materials and spices.

Some of the softer cheeses are used most to make cheese pies and cakes. These include pot and baker's cheese, while Neufchatel, cream, and cottage cheese are often used in salads and sandwiches. For the latter use, however, those slightly firmer, including belk, Limburger and Switzer, are more commonly used.

Camembert and Roquefort are usually eaten with crackers, while the hard forms, such as Parmesan and Casu Marzu, are grated by the best cooks to bake with spaghetti and macaroni.

Uncle Remus's Birthplace.

The tales that Uncle Remus told the Little Boy have been translated into many languages and recognized as having in them something of that essence that makes certain folk stories imperishable. Now the home of the author is to be preserved as a literary shrine, Snap Bean Farm, and the house on it called the Wren Nest, lie not far from Atlanta. Both appear in the Uncle Remus stories. The South has few literary shrines more worthy of preservation than this bit of the loom of land, life and sky where Joel Chandler Harris wrote his negro folklore into stories.—[New York Tribune.]

WHAT THE NEWSPAPERS SAY

The Senate Threatened.

It is reported that members of the Senate are in a twitter over the prospect that Mrs. Olsen, who has been nominated for Senator by the Democrats in Minnesota, may be elected to the office, and thus break in upon the deliberations of that august body.

Of course it would be a novelty to have a woman in the United States Senate; but if the woman, one of several of them, were as capable as Mrs. Olsen appears to be, the Senate would not suffer by her presence. Perhaps it would be an advantage, although it must be confessed that up to the present the women who have representation in the lower House have not shown any particular adaptability or strength.

The Vine and Fig Club. Marshal Joffre has joined the Vine and Fig club. Wearied with public affairs, he longs, as did Washington, for the quiet and peace of rustic life. But, not having a Mount Vernon, the Marshal is preparing for a little garden, where he can care for a few flowers and vegetables. As an ardent advocate for preparedness the Marshal believes in training for his new profession. To be a soldier you must learn from those who know. Why not do the same to be a farmer?—[New York Sun.]

France's Birth Rate. The declining birth rate in France which so alarmed French observers before the war continues. The 700,000 births in 1913 will compare with less than 500,000 next year at the present ratio. Germany's births, now 600,000 Great Britain's 400,000, and Italy's, 800,000, are all increasing annually.—[Pittsburgh Dispatch.]

Our Credit. The credit of the United States Government continues to be of a kind which is the envy of others. Uncle Sam from first to last has paid out a great deal of money to meet his obligations, but he has never resorted to the process of scaling down his debts.—[Troy Times.]

A Liberal Court. It is the opinion of many that the Supreme Court of the United States and the Federal courts generally have seldom if ever shown a greater degree of liberalism and freedom from narrowness than they are showing today.—[New York Journal of Commerce.]

Couldn't See It. It is becoming evident that there are coal operators who would not recognize a minimum price should they meet one face to face.—[Boston Transcript.]

Her Willingness. Russia does not like Uncle Sam and yet she is willing to borrow all the money he will loan her without security.—[Jamestown Journal.]

Hopeful! Nine hundred delegates attended an anti-La Follette Republican State convention in Wisconsin. That's a hopeful sign.—[Buffalo Express.]

No Worries! Even a critical illness cannot worry the man who has died as many times as Lenin.—[New York Tribune.]

SIMMONS FAMILY REUNION

One Hundred Descendants of B. A. Simmons Met in Oneonta Park for Twentieth Annual Get-together.

The twentieth annual reunion of the B. A. Simmons family was held at Oneonta park in this city on Saturday and proved a most enjoyable occasion for the nearly one hundred descendants who had assembled. Fine weather helped to make the event a conspicuous success.

At 12:30 a bounteous dinner was served which all attacked with gusto and keen relish. Following the repast there was a program of songs and recitations by the Misses Gladys and Marion Wright, Edna Simmons and Anna Sperbeck, and a business session at which the following officers were elected: President, Sherman Simmons of Cooperstown Junction; vice-president, James K. Simmons of West Oneonta; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Sherman Simmons. A vote of thanks was extended to the city of Oneonta for its hospitality and it was voted to meet here again in 1923.

Notice of Public Meeting.

On Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Municipal building, all property owners on Church, Center and Maple and all citizens interested in the removal of the trolley tracks from the said streets are requested to meet for the purpose of appointing a committee and selecting an attorney to represent the interests of the property owners at the public hearing to be held in the city of Binghamton on Friday, June 30, at 11 o'clock. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance that it may be effectively shown that as long as the trolley company retains its interest on said street it will be impossible to secure the improvements which are much needed.

Surprise for Clyde Conrow.

Last Friday evening a party of about twenty neighbors, relatives and friends surprised Clyde Conrow at his home on South Side, the occasion being his birthday. All enjoyed themselves to the utmost. The evening was spent in dancing, music being furnished by an orchestra composed of James McNelly, saxophone, and Miss Grace Augustin, piano. Later a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Conrow, which was much enjoyed by the merry-makers. At a late hour the guests departed having secured a complete surprise on Mr. Conrow.

FIRE BALLOONS DANGEROUS

Superintendent of Forests Warns Against Their Use in Fourth of July Celebrations.

Albany, June 25. — Fire balloons are a menace to the forests of the state and Clifford R. Pettis, superintendent of state forests, has issued a warning against their use in connection with Fourth of July celebrations. Unpiloted hot air balloons may not legally be used in Fourth of July celebrations or at any other time in any of the fire towns of the Adirondack or Catskill regions. The prohibition of the use of this kind of fireworks is designed to prevent the starting of forest fires. Numerous instances are on record, where in the past balloons have been sent up in connection with Fourth of July celebrations and other similar cases and then have sailed off over the woods until their charge of inflammable material is very nearly consumed. Then they have come down to the ground, frequently in the most inaccessible part of the woods, and enough heat and fire has been present to start serious forest fires.

The conservation law prohibits the use of such fire balloons "in any fire town or in a town adjacent thereto." This includes all of the land embraced within the Adirondack and Catskill regions.

It is felt that a very considerable saving in forest fire damage can be effected by strict adherence to this law by the public.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

THAT the city that gets the publicity gets the business.

THAT the city that gets the advertising grows.

THAT advertising a city is a business, not child's play.

THAT people will go miles to get to a good live city to trade.

THAT your property will increase in value when the outside world knows your city is wide-awake.

THAT people from neighboring cities will come where there is something doing.

THAT the city which does not seek something better than it now has, is going to lose out. That now is the time your city and business need advertising more than ever before.

THAT if you don't get out and go after the outside trade, some neighboring city will.

THAT if they do, they will get the business you should get.

SMITH SHOW TRAIN ARRIVES

Circus Equipment Arrives in City But With No License to Show—Management Awaits Developments—Seek Location Outside of City.

The Smith Greater Shows originally announced to show in the city for one week, commencing today, but whose license was revoked by Mayor Miller, who was given information to the effect that the show resembled the usual carnival more than the advance agent had represented, arrived in the city last night. The show, which is a city show, had picked its tents for the past two weeks, the license fees in that city being prohibitive.

Efforts to have Mayor Miller recall his action rescinding the license have proved fruitless. It is understood that the show management awaits the developments of today.

It is understood that they seek a location nearby the city upon which to pitch their tents and give exhibitions but the efforts of their advance men had, it is understood, up to last evening proven fruitless. The firm has claimed any effort to secure for their grounds outside the city yesterday.

It was stated last night that an effort was made to locate on grounds off Chestnut street, but the owner of the property refused to lease the grounds for the purpose. The property owner whom it is reported they interviewed is a resident of that section.

All sorts of arguments have been presented to Mayor Miller by representatives of the circus people but that official has been adamant, not being willing that the show should go on either in the city parks or elsewhere in the city.

THE INVESTMENT OF LIFE

REV. M. E. VAN NOSTRAND OF ALBANY DELIVERS POWERFUL SERMON TO HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES.

Life of Service to God and Mankind Urged Upon Young Men and Women by Eloquent Albany Divine in Baccalaureate Sermon Last Evening—Large Attendance of Relatives and Friends.

"Whatever part you play in the world play it well. Plunge out into life and make the most of what God has given you. Invest your life; make the great adventure of faith; dare to do something." With those words Rev. M. E. Van Nostrand of the Baptist Emmanuel church of Albany gave the gist of his powerful address to the members of the class of 1922 in the annual Baccalaureate sermon at the High school last evening. Taking as his subject the "Investment of Life," the speaker urged the graduates to invest their lives as did the servants of God and assured them that they would reap the same reward as did the good and faithful servants of God. He made full use of the lives which he had followed. It was an eloquent and forceful sermon and could not fail but make a lasting impression upon the minds of those who heard it. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends of the class.

The program, which was in charge of Rev. C. S. Pendleton as chairman, began with the hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy," by the assemblage followed by the invocation by Dr. Pendleton. A vocal solo, "The Good Shepherd," by Miss Dorothy Thurfelt, music instructor in the public schools, was followed by the reading of the scripture lesson by Rev. L. Curtis Denney, who took the 14th verse of the 27th chapter of the Gospel of St. Matthew, in which the parable of the talents is told. Prayer by Rev. Dr. B. M. Johnson was followed by the singing of the anthem, "Praise Ye the Father," by the High school chorus.

Mr. Van Nostrand then delivered his sermon, which he had named, "The Investment of Life." After telling the graduates that commencement meant for them the beginning of the birth of the opportunity to make use of that knowledge which was theirs, the speaker said that he would base his talk upon that parable in which it is related how talents were given to three servants by their master and how two of them, who had repaid their master with interest while the third, afraid of life, hid his in the earth and was condemned therefore. "God has given you a life to invest for Him," the speaker said. It is stamped with the mark of divinity above it. It is that when He calls for it you can say, "Here, Lord, is the life which you gave me, with interest." He brought out the fact that just as money hidden away under lock and key earns no interest so a life hidden away from the world and devoted to which purposes brings no reward. "The world needs young men and women like yourselves," the divine said. "Do something. Show service, love and devotion to God and your fellow men. You may win and you may lose but if at the end of the day you can say, 'I have done my best, that is all that the Lord will require of you.'"

The second point that the speaker brought out was that of the investment of life is the law of development. "Only by investing in the world, what is hidden away does not grow. Muscles grow only by use. The same is true of mental powers. There can be no development of our lives unless we invest them in the life of the world. The more we give out the more we will take in. 'Don't stand still,' he urged. 'Advance, grow, develop into full knowledge of the things of the world and of the things of God.'

The last point which Rev. Mr. Van Nostrand emphasized was the law of the investment of life is the law of the security of life. "If you will not invest what I have given you, then what I have given you will be taken away from you," the speaker emphasized the fact that it is the law of life that what is not invested, eventually becomes useless. "Money counts when it is lived above ground but lost their vision when they burrowed beneath the ground and did not use their eyes. If we do not invest our lives, our powers and abilities will weaken and that which we have will be taken from us. In closing he urged the members of the class to invest their lives in the service of the world; to make the great adventure of faith with the assurance that that which is given out will return with compound interest.

The exercises, which equalled in inspiration and appeal a similar nature ever held in the city, closed with the singing of "Come, Thou Almighty King" by the assemblage and the benediction by Rev. L. C. Denney.

INCENDIARY FIRES BARN

Large Structure on Farm of S. R. Mathews on West Street Burns Saturday Evening—Attempt Made to Set Fire to House—Spectacular Blaze.

Choosing a time when all the occupants of the farm house were away, an unknown incendiary fired the big barn on the farm of S. R. Mathews on upper West street Saturday evening and also tried to burn the house but was evidently frightened away before his dastardly purpose could be accomplished. The barn was burned to the ground with its contents, including two horses and a quantity of farm machinery. A ladder leaning against the side of the house and a quantity of oil soaked rags thrust into the roof boards were evidence that an attempt had been made to include the dwelling in the blaze. The police are investigating the case. The fire was discovered at about the same time by several people living in the vicinity and the box on the corner of Center and West streets was sounded, the burning building being within the city limits. The fire trucks responded and several hundred feet of hose were laid but the nearest hydrant was some distance from the barn and attempts to get water on the blaze had to be abandoned. Fire had very probably been kindled in several different places at the same time as the flames spread rapidly and by the time persons arrived to see the scene the roof had fallen in, making attempts to rescue the horses futile.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathews have been in Warrsburg, Pa., for a week visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ward, who are employed on the farm and who live in the house, were downtown with George Hayes, Mathews' father-in-law, and there were none about the place when the fire started. Marcus Stiles, employed by Mathews to assist in the milking, was at his home on West Broadway.

The fire broke out at about 9 o'clock and it was not until some hours later that it was discovered that an attempt had been made to set fire to the dwelling. A portion of tarpaper and several shingles had been removed from the roof and a bundle of rags found in the woodshed and saturated with kerosene also found there had been used in a fire. In the roof boards, but no evidence was found that it had been ignited. One theory is that the fire in the barn spread more quickly than was anticipated and that the person working on the house had been frightened away by fear that he would be caught by people rushing to the blaze. The roof had been reached by a ladder carried from a nearby building.

The barn, which was of considerable size, being 40x90 feet, contained besides the horses and a quantity of grain, hay and ice, a corn harrow, reaper and binder, milking machine and engine, threshing machine, several sets of harness and other farm implements. Mathews carried some insurance, but just how much could not be ascertained yesterday. He was notified by word of the fire and replied that he would return as soon as possible.

It is said that Mathews had several cows poisoned some time ago, which would lead to the belief that he has enemies who may have stooped to incendiarism to satisfy some grudge. That is merely surmise, however. It was rumored yesterday that a neighbor saw a man hurrying away from the scene of the fire soon after it was discovered, but no confirmation of that fact could be obtained.

The fire was a spectacular one and a large crowd soon gathered at the spot and at various high vantage points in the city. The flames illuminated the sky for some time.

Model School at Normal.

The work of the model school in connection with the summer school at the Oneonta Normal will begin on Monday, July 3. All teaching will be by members of the faculty, and any children of the city will be welcomed. There will be no charge for instruction.

The model school will close on Wednesday, August 9—two days before the summer school. Training will be in the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th grades, and in the model school there will be no sessions on July 4. The school affords excellent opportunity for all grade students desiring to do extra work, and especially for those who may wish to make up any subject in their grades which was not finished at the close of the regular school year.

Bible Students' Meeting.

There was a good attendance yesterday afternoon at the meeting held at Municipal hall under the auspices of the International Bible Students' association. W. W. Moore of Binghamton was the speaker, and he presented many arguments and scriptural selections in support of his contention that "millions now living will never die."

Dr. C. J. Bodemann and son, Karl, departed on Saturday for Annapolis, Md., the latter having received an appointment to the naval academy in that city. He takes the physical examination this morning at 9 o'clock and if successful will at once enter. Dr. Bodemann will be absent from the city until Wednesday night.

Many members of the Alumni association are planning to attend the annual banquet to be held this evening at 6 p. m. this evening in the Paul Revere corridor of the High school building. The Alumni banquet is one of the most popular social events of commencement week, and it is expected that this year's attendance will exceed that of last June, which was exceptionally large. The toast list is exceptionally well selected and arranged, the names of three speakers being announced. In addition, there will be musical selections by Miss Annie Waters and by the High School Quartet. The speakers of the evening are as follows: Allan Bishop, '22, "Teachers and Faculty," Miss Mildred A. Peck, instructor in Latin, "Students I Have Taught," and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, '82, "Reminiscences." Caterer Kilkeny is in charge of the serving of the banquet, and a fine menu is promised.

The annual banquet of the Alumni association is in honor of the members of the year's graduating class, and the class of 1922 will attend in full force. All members of the Alumni association with their friends are urged to be present. It is hoped that there will be a larger attendance at the banquet this June than ever before.

AFTERNOON OF REAL SPORT

Unadilla Plays Here Today, 'Nuff Said—The Schedule for the Week.

Unadilla will invade the city today with her crack ball team and will furnish the opposition to Bridwell's Giants at Neahwa park at 4:15. This is about all that need be said. The rivalry between the rival communities are always full of excitement and interest in the series is at fever heat. Bell's Athletics will make a strenuous endeavor to cop this afternoon's game and Bridwell's Giants will try just as hard to take first honors. What more could an avid fan desire? Yltsie will probably pitch for Oneonta and On Tuesday Oneonta will journey down the river and oppose Unadilla in her own balliwick. On Wednesday Walton will be played in that village and on Thursday the Giants will play at Norwich. On Friday Walton will exhibit her wares here. On Saturday the Bonackers of Albany, a sterling aggregation, will be seen in action at Neahwa park and on Sunday Bridwell will take his men to Schenectady to play the fast 10 of C. team of the Electric City. An interesting schedule but a hard one but no one doubts that the Giants will take their share of the contests.

New Chevrolet Coupe. Fred N. VanWile received on Friday his first new superior Chevrolet utility two passenger coupe which is now on exhibition in his show window on Dietz street. This car is especially designed for physicians and traveling men as it is roomy with large doors and a spacious luggage compartment in the rear. It sells for $720 f. o. b. factory.

Most stores have a leader of which they are justly proud. Many Oneonta dealers specialize in Kilpatrick high grade coffee. Ask for it. Adv. 61

LIFE-LONG RESIDENT OF CITY

Mrs. Sylvester Ford Expires Sunday. After Long Illness—Funeral Wednesday.

The many friends of Mrs. Sylvester Ford of this city learned with deep regret yesterday of her death, which occurred at 3:10 p. m. at the family home, 29 Walnut street. Though she had been in failing health for several months, the immediate cause of her death was a shock which she suffered about two weeks before.

The funeral services, which will be private, will be held at her late home at 2 p. m. on Wednesday. Her pastor, Rev. Dr. Edson J. Farley, of the First Baptist church, will officiate, and burial will be in the Ford family plot in the Riverside cemetery. Friends desiring to pay their respects will be welcomed at the house between the hours of two and five Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ford, whose maiden name was Emogene Burton, was a daughter of Potter C. and Sophie (Smith) Burton, and was born February 25, 1844. Her entire life was spent in what is now the city of Oneonta, at first at the corner of Chestnut and Academy streets and later in the house which Mr. Burton erected on Chestnut street, and which is now the chapel of the Christian Science church. Not long after her marriage to Mr. Ford, which was on June 9, 1869, they removed to the house which he erected on Walnut street, and which for half a century had been her home. She was descended from sturdy New England stock, her father, who was the pioneer jeweler of Oneonta, coming on foot from Long Island and bringing with him all his earthly possessions, including tools and stock in trade, tied in a handkerchief. His earlier shop was located in a brick building on Chestnut street, being since demolished, and afterwards in a building erected by him just east of the site of the present Baker block on Main street.

The deceased had for many years been a faithful and consistent member of the First Baptist church of this city. She was a quiet, unassuming woman, a loving wife and mother, a faithful friend, a good neighbor, and as a lifelong resident deeply interested in the welfare of the community.

To the surviving members of her family, which include her husband, one son, Dr. Walter B. Ford of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, the latter's two sons, Sylvester and Clinton B. Ford; her sister, Mrs. T. J. Gilderleeve; a nephew, H. B. Gilderleeve of Oneonta, and one niece, Mrs. Minnie Cossart, there will be extended heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement.

MARRIED AT ST. MARY'S

The maid of honor was Miss Carrie DeAmbrosio and the bridesmaid Miss Christine Molinari. The groom's best man was Joseph Campani. The ushers were Angelo and Frank Pizzi and the bride's little niece, Miss Virginia Erienza, was the ring bearer.

The bride was prettily attired in white champagne with veil caught by orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. The maid of honor was gowned in white canton crepe with hat to match and carried Ophelia roses. The bridesmaid's dress was of yellow organdie with hat to match and she also carried Ophelia roses.

Following the church wedding which was attended by numerous friends of the bride and groom, a breakfast was served at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. F. J. Erienza, at 13 Park avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Pizzi will reside at 57 South Main street.

The bride has been employed by the Ballston Knitting company and the groom by Brenza's Goody shop on Chestnut street. Their future plans have not been decided. Numerous friends will unite in extending best wishes.

CONFLICTING WEEK ON STOCK EXCHANGE

Lower Discount Rate and "Mex Pete" Episode Influence Market to Extraordinary Degree

New York, June 25. — Trading in the financial markets the past week was influenced to an extraordinary degree by two developments of widely divergent significance, which contributed mainly to the conflicting movements of stocks and bonds. Investment conditions were again sustained by the cut in the local Federal Reserve bank discount rate, accompanied by assurances that such action implied additional liquidation of frozen credits at centers where grains and cottons form the chief commodities of trade.

South Side Noses Out Company G.

Before a good sized crowd of fans, the Company G baseball team met defeat, 10 to 9, at the hands of Wheel-ock's South Side nine on the South Side grounds yesterday afternoon. The soldiers piled up four runs in the first on two hits and as many errors and kept their advantage until the eighth when South Side, who had made five tallies the previous inning, passed them in the scoring. Plans are being made for another game between the teams next Sunday.

A HECTIC AFFAIR

portion of the seventh, the Oneonta team started in in earnest and drove Bobby from the mound. Snyder was first up and was passed. Farrell's terrific drive went into center field for a double, scoring Snyder. Alexander was out on an infield effort, placing the Penn star on third. Hatch hit hard to Weingartner, the ball bounding off the shine of the latter, so that the twirler had to come over half way to the plate to catch the ball. Too late to head Hatch at first had he desired to make that play. He, of course, elected Farrell, and would have done so had not Barnes, who did what receiving was done dropped the ball. Hermann took an easy swing at the ball, it going to center and, by means of an error on the part of the supposed guard of that position, it was out. Hatch coming in with the fifth run and Hermann ending at third.

At this stage of the game the board was put against Weingartner and Wargo took up the work. Bridwell bunted for a sacrifice, squeezing in Hermann with the tying score. Wargo's attempt to field the bunt was ludicrous and when finally he did catch the elusive sphere, all hands were safe. Steffin and Sinstack singled to right field, putting the finishing touches to Bridwell's run and making the locals one to the good. Then the real weirdness began. Daddy Reid was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases and with only one down. Wargo sent over a wild pitch, Steffin scoring on the misplay, and the other two runners advanced a base each. The twirling player had gotten to within a short distance of the box when Sinstack started for the plate, the catcher being away from his position after his mask, which he had removed in going after the untame pitch. The third sacker ran in with Sinny, to take a throw and retire the runner, but Wargo's peg was very bad and the ball went to the dugout, and on a ground rule both runs counted. The next two batters were not difficult to retire.

The Giants got three men on with only one down in the eighth, but Dunn, who was then working, retired Steffin and Sinstack on fly balls. Hermann came in for some favorable comment on one of his plays, third, ending it with a pretty throw across the diamond. In the fifth Shean hit a hot one toward Snyder, who could only deflect it, Farrell reaching the ball and, by a hurried, but good peg, retired the runner.

Scanlon made his first appearance after his injury and just six men faced him in the two rounds he worked. E. J. LEGIONS AB R H PO A E

WHISKAWAY WINS KENTUCKY SPECIAL

Defeats Thibodeaux, Outsider, by Half Length, Which Was Ten Lengths Ahead of Morvich

Lafayette, Ky., June 24. — In a driving finish that sent a crowd of 50,000 into a frenzy of excitement, Whiskaway, a noble son of Whisk Broom (1), won the $50,000 Kentucky Special here this afternoon by a margin of less than a half length from Thibodeaux, the absolute outsider, who in turn was ten lengths ahead of Morvich, the odds-on favorite.

The Whitney colt, in establishing itself as king of the three-year-olds, performed as only a champion can perform, for at even weights with the field he stepped the mile and one-quarter in 2:02 4-5; just one-fifth of a second slower than the track record, established two years ago.

It was not expected that the west would gather in any of the rich prize money, but the startling showing of Thibodeaux upset this angle, defeating Deadlock and Pillory handily. The machines paid $11.20 for a 32 ticket on the winner, $7.10 to place, and $4.30 to show. Thibodeaux was $20.30 to place and $3.90 to show, while Morvich paid $2.30 to show.

The winner's share of the purse was $42,550, with $6,000 to Thibodeaux and $3,000 to Morvich.

All records for attendance at the local course were shattered and racing conditions could not have been more ideal. A bright sun made the track lightning fast. Every available inch of space in the stands was occupied and the lawn was packed almost to suffocation for nearly three eighths of a mile. It was a glorious tribute to the thoroughbred and when Whiskaway demonstrated his right to a place in Turf Hall of Fame this crowd cheered for fully five minutes.

At post time Block was confident that Morvich would reverse the defeat which he suffered in the Carlton Stakes at Aqueduct, when Whiskaway, with a fifteen-pound drag in the weights, led the Derby winner to the wire by nearly eight lengths. "Morvich was never better and at equal weights I believe he will win today," said Block, as the field of five faced the barrier.

For the most part it was a Morvich crowd. Many of those who saw Ben Block's pet romp to victory in the Kentucky Derby were here today, and money for the Runnymede colt literally poured into the betting machines. Block was a tragic figure as he saw Morvich hopelessly beaten.

SALVATION ARMY FAREWELLS

Members of Oneonta Corps Listen to Last Message of Captain and Mrs. Harrison.

Last evening a congregation goodly in numbers assembled at Salvation Army hall to listen to words of farewell from Captain and Mrs. William Harrison, to clasp their hands in final friendly greeting and to wish for them a work of fruitful service in their new field at Herkimer, for which they depart Wednesday morning. The principal speaker of the evening was Rev. J. C. Johnson, who has always manifested much interest in the Army work, and who followed a helpful talk on the spirit of Christ, which is manifested in a desire to do the work of the Master, with a few personal remarks in which he voiced the general regret at their departure and wished for them even greater success than has been theirs in their new field of service.

At the close of Mr. Johnson's remarks, Captain Harrison announced his successor as Commander Stubbs, now of Gloversville, who, with his wife, will arrive in the city this week and will have charge of the services on Thursday night. Opportunity was then given for members of the congregation to say a few final words. Several embraced the opportunity, expressing the general feeling of satisfaction with the work of Captain Harrison and of personal regret at his departure.

Mrs. Harrison, speaking for herself and concerning her personal experiences in this city, paid grateful and graceful tribute to her associates in the Army membership. Captain Harrison, the final speaker, expressed his own gratitude for the many courtesies shown and for the helpful hand extended and in conclusion he urged that in the same spirit which during his sojourn here had been manifested they greet his successor in fullest loyalty of spirit.

After the service, which closed with prayer by Mr. Johnson, many remained to shake the hand of the departing captain and his efficient helpmate, and to wish them God-speed in their new work.

Captain Harrison desires The Star on his behalf to thank the people of Oneonta for the kindness, consideration and cooperation which have been manifested to himself and Mrs. Harrison while here, and to bespeak a like cordial reception to their successors.

Ira Sweet, practical bonesetter, at the Windsor, Oneonta, July 3. Carter hotel, Norwich, July 6. advt 11

With the cheers of thousands urging Whiskaway to almost certain victory Block nearly collapsed, so great was the strain upon his nerves.

THE BODY BUILDER

"There's a Reason"

To the Taxpayers and Voters of Oneonta

An offer has been made by the undersigned to the Honorable Mayor and Common Council to equip the city with voting machines, same to be paid for if so desired by the city in annual installments, equal to whatever the Mayor and Council estimate the machines will save in election expenses, until their purchase price is reached.

We take this means of acquainting the voters and taxpayers of the city with this proposal and of bringing to their attention a number of FACTS connected with the use of voting machines. We will not endeavor in this communication to do more than summarize these facts, which were given to the Common Council, but shall be glad to furnish detailed information to any citizen desiring it.

Voting machines have been used in New York state for more than twenty years and that use has demonstrated beyond all doubt that certain benefits always result from their use, namely:

THEY reduce the expenses of conducting elections from 30 to 50 per cent; in fact, enough to pay for their entire cost in from four to seven years.

THEY make voting much easier for the voter and prevent him or her from spoiling their ballots.

THEY stop him if he would inadvertently make a mistake and compel the voting to be absolutely secret.

THEY discourage the buying and selling of votes and prevent all mistakes and frauds in the count.

THEY show the results of the election immediately and retain a permanent record of the count.

THEY eliminate the arduous, all-night work of canvassing the ballots and put an end to recounts and contested elections.

EXTENT OF USE

Over seventy per cent of the voters of the state, outside of New York city, cast their votes on voting machines at the last general election. Many cities and towns have used the machines for over twenty years. Numbered among those cities that have adopted the modern method of voting are the following:

Binghamton	New Rochelle	Auburn	Rome
Buffalo	Jamestown	Hornell	Little Falls
Amsterdam	Salamanca	Cornell	Watervliet
Rochester	Jackawanna	Cortland	Cohoes
Niagara Falls	Tonawanda	Fulton	Rensselaer
Utica	No. Tonawanda	Oswego	Hudson
Syracuse	Lackport	Watertown	Foughkeepsie
Troy	Batavia	Port Jervis	Newburgh
Schenectady	Canandigua	Middletown	White Plains
Yonkers	Geneva	Norwich	Glen Cove
Mount Vernon	Ithaca	Oneida	Olean

CAN THE CITY OF ONEONTA AFFORD EITHER TO DEFER OR TO REJECT THE ADOPTION OF VOTING MACHINES WHEN AN OFFER IS MADE TO INSTALL THEM AND ACCEPT IN PAYMENT THEREFORE THE ANNUAL SAVING IN ELECTION EXPENSES EXPECTED THROUGH THEIR USE? This proposition is now awaiting the decision of the Common Council and they will no doubt be glad to learn the views of their constituents.

Respectfully submitted
